18th Annual TRAACA Square Car Tour Saturday, May 11, 2019

The TRAACAs 18th Annual Square Car Tour is on Saturday, May 11th. The tour was started as a way to honor and enjoy our old-fashioned “square cars.” There’s a large number of square cars in our region and in the Hampton Roads area; unfortunately, we don’t see them on the roads very often. It is hard for them to keep pace with today’s modern traffic, avoid being run over by large trucks and SUVs, or try to share the road with today’s distracted drivers who just don’t understand how things used to be.

Saturday, May 11th, is your day to enjoy a nice drive in your square car! Plan to join us for a leisurely and scenic drive over roads less travelled, through the rural Pungo area of Virginia Beach with its world-famous landmarks, then south into North Carolina. Charlie Dawson has prepared and tested a route perfect for square cars.

We will meet at 9 AM in downtown Pungo at the Pungo Sports Bar (1771 Princess Anne Rd, Virginia Beach, VA). It has a large parking lot and breakfast sandwiches will be available.

Our tour will take us south with stops at the newly remodeled Blackwater Trading Post (best known for its boat ramp and fish catchin’ lies) in Virginia Beach, Monk’s Place (which brags it has the best burgers in the Beach) in Virginia Beach, across the Marsh Causeway to Knotts Island, North Carolina, and then on the return trip we’ll stop for lunch at Pearl’s Bay Villa Marina. Our tour will end at Charlie Dawson’s “hobby shop” in Virginia Beach for some “show & tell” time of Charlie’s collection and latest acquisitions.

Don’t forget: you don’t have to own a square car to participate in the tour. If you don’t have a suitable square car, you may be able to hitch a ride with another club member or you are welcome to drive a newer antique vehicle—yes, you can even drive modern—but you will need to bring up the rear and try as best as you can to keep up with the old timers.

If you have any questions or need more information, you can contact Charlie Dawson at (757) 620-7733 or pungo9@rcn.com.

The TRAACAs got “Tattooed.” May’s club activity was a trip to the Virginia International Tattoo in Norfolk, VA, on April 28th. Read the story on Page 14.

The spring season has quickly come and graced us with her presence. With spring comes car shows and cruise-ins, which have begun in earnest this year. The weekly Saturday evening cruise-ins at Landstown Commons Shopping Center have commenced, as have the Saturday evening cruise-ins on the peninsula in Yorktown. The Friday evening cruise-ins have begun up on the middle peninsula in Gloucester. By the time you read this the Wednesday evening cruise-ins out in Franklin will have started and the Chevy Lovers will have wrapped up their annual Spring Dust Off show. There is a wide variety of days and locations in the area that support and accommodate the old car enthusiast in all of us, so take the opportunity to get your old ride out of the garage and show it at one of these fine events. The above events I mentioned are just a few of the many other shows throughout our area.

Speaking of car shows. The ODMA is holding its 66th Annual Meet next month [June 7-8] at the Holiday Inn City Center in Newport News and is being hosted by the HVPR. Please get your registration forms in early! Your registration form needs to be postmarked by May 25th for your vehicle to be judged. This year's Meet is in a convenient location and is in our backyard, so-to-speak, so we should have a large contingent of vehicles from our Region supporting not only the ODMA, but also our sister Region HVPR.

What a nice Dinner Meeting we had in April. We were honored to have Jim Elliott's family in attendance with us, especially his father James. James is a WWII veteran, having landed in Normandy a few days after D-Day. James treated us to a very interesting and moving talk about his experiences during the war. Vickie and I commented after the meeting that we could have listened to him all night! James is truly a part of the greatest generation that ever lived. More stories like his need to be told and shared.

We will not have a dinner meeting this month. Instead, we are having a BBQ picnic at the home of Dewey and Maxine Milligan in Chesapeake on Saturday, May 18. Food will be catered by Southland Catering and Events. Hopefully the weather will be on our side so that we can fill the parking area with antique cars and trucks. Thank you, Dewey and Maxine, for providing your home to us again this year! We will return to the hotel in June for our regularly scheduled dinner meeting. We will move locations in July to Cypress Point Country Club to finish out the year there with our dinner meetings.

AACA SE Spring Nationals Charlotte, NC April 4-6, 2019

Every year, in early April, the Hornets Nest Region of the AACA holds the AACA Southeastern Spring Nationals in Charlotte, NC. The AACA Southeastern Spring Nationals are held in conjunction with the Spring Charlotte AutoFair. The NASCAR teams are out of town that weekend, and Charlotte Motor Speedway is turned into a swap meet lover's dream. This year the Southeastern Spring Nationals were held April 4-6, 2019. (The AutoFair was held on April 4-7.)

There were several special displays set up on the Charlotte Motor Speedway grounds during the Autofair. In one of the race team garage buildings in the track infield, there was a collection of Bonneville Salt Flat race cars and a number of Chevrolet El Caminos (mostly modified). Also on display was a beautiful 1960 MGA formerly owned by Elvis Presley.

Fridays at the Charlotte Nationals have become the day for the annual Speedway Club dinner for many TRAACAs members and other AACA friends. This year Marion McAlpine arranged for 36 people to enjoy dinner and the great view overlooking the Charlotte Motor Speedway track. The food was wonderful and everyone had a great time. Charlie Daniels' son and daughter-in-law were able to join the group this year. Charlie will have to keep his Speedway Club membership going for a long time so we can continue the annual tradition.

The weather was cooperative for most of the days of the Charlotte AutoFair. Unfortunately for the vendors, the weather on Friday was cold, windy, and rainy. AACA members coming for the Nationals usually shop on Friday because they are busy with the car show on Saturday. Because of the rain on Friday, many went antique shopping.

Thankfully, Saturday was a beautiful day for the Nationals. There were 301 vehicles registered for the AACA show. For the last several years the AACA show field has been located on a paved parking lot close to the major intersection at the front of the speedway. If it rains, the judges may get wet, but hopefully not get muddy shoes. Judges enjoy the new show field area for the pavement as well as the location being close to an entrance to the AutoFair swap meet.

Virginia Chevy Lovers Spring Dust Off Car Show

Saturday, April 27, 2019

Story by Marion McAlpine. Photos by Mark McAlpine.

On Saturday, April 27, 2019, the Virginia Chevy Lovers (VCL) held their 15th Annual Spring Dust Off. The VCL Spring Dust Off is always one of the first car shows held in the Tidewater area each year. The VCL event is a fund-raiser, with the proceeds benefiting the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The show was held at Landstown Commons on Princess Anne Rd in Virginia Beach. (The VCL also shares the hosting responsibilities of weekly cruise-ins at Landstown Commons from April to October with three other local car clubs, with all VCL proceeds again going to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.)

In the past, the VCL Spring Dust Off was open only to vehicles 25-years old and older. Hoping to increase the amount of money raised for its charity, the VCL opened this year's show to all cars, trucks and motorcycles. For judging, the vehicles were separated into two groups: those 1994 and older and those 1995 and newer. Trophies were awarded to both groups. The show also had music, a few vendors, a silent auction, and a 50/50 Raffle.

The VCL made another change this year: they moved the show to the last week of April. The reason for this change was simple—the VCL was looking for better weather. During the last several years the show was held in early April and often was canceled or postponed due to inclement weather. (Believe it or not, sometimes Virginia Beach has even seen snow in April.) Changing the date was a good move—although it poured the night before (causing cancellation of the first day of the “Something in the Water” festival at the Beach), Saturday was a nice day. The weather started out chilly and windy, but it warmed up by lunchtime.

Several TRAAC members are also members of VCL and either helped at the show and/or showed a vehicle. TRAAC members working the VCL show included Charlie & Sandy Dawson, John & Marie Gancel, Mark & Marion McAlpine, Toni McChesney (Mickey was ill and could not make the show), Al & Georgiann McVicker, Bob & Dot Parrish, and Bill & Linda Treadwell. Other TRAAC members present included Fred Cole, Paul & Cori Fuqua, Joseph Gentile, Sam Kern, Frank Lagana, Rick Seaman, Ken & Barbara Talley, and Bob Ward.

Next year consider checking out the VCL’s Spring Dust Off car show. It is a nice show, and you would be helping to support a good cause.

Still Collecting Stuff— MG Stuff—Pt 2

By Terry Bond
(with assistance from Susan Bond & Richard Hall)

This month we continue looking at MG-related collectibles. Although the focus is on our LBCs (“little British cars”), I’m sure you realize that no matter what kind of car(s) you consider your favorite, there are a lot of collectible items out there to enjoy and help bring your hobby inside out of the garage. These items cross over into many areas, and this part in my MG series will focus on “objects of art.”

First on the list is what I refer to as “wall hangers.” These are the numerous posters, prints, signs, and items you can hang on the wall. Whether you professionally mat and frame them doesn’t matter, although admittedly, a nice frame does enhance many of them.

Prints, even those in limited edition, have been around a long time. This wonderful print of an MG TC perfectly matches Richard Hall’s red 1948 MG TC and fits nicely into his collection. The print is by an unknown artist, but is signed and numbered and is very well done.

One of our favorites is a signed, numbered print by Kevin Walsh, a noted British illustrator whose work has been featured on greeting cards, posters, and even computer mousepads! He is perhaps better known for his wonderful illustrations of early aircraft, but his automobile prints are exquisite and filled with great objects and wonderful detail. Having one that is autographed by the artist is a great addition to Susan’s collection and has pride of place in our living room.

High on our want list is “The MG Girl” used on the cover of The Autocar magazine in 1932. This portrait of a pretty lady driving an early MG was done by famed artist F. Gordon Crosby, whose racing scenes are well known. Even a magazine cover would please us, but the original and perhaps some individually produced lithographs must still be out there somewhere.

High on Terry & Susan’s wish list is a print of “The MG Girl” used on the April 20, 1932, cover of “The Autocar” magazine

Another real prize in Susan’s collection is a signed, numbered, collage showing “Old Number One”—the first MG—and also the last MG (an MGB) produced in 1980. In addition to the artist’s signature, it was signed specifically for Susan by Don Hayter, designer of the MGB GT, who we met at a large National MG Club event in Gatlinburg, TN, several years ago. I can still sense the emotion he must have felt seeing hundreds of his cars on display—cars which were never intended to last or be collected and cherished to the extent they are today.

Next is a rather interesting piece of art; it is a lithograph showing legendary artist F. Gordon Crosby sketching an MG in a garage, filled with great stuff—old oil cans, tools, etc. Computer imagery was used by noted filmmaker David Shelburne to create this scene. Many of the objects inserted into the work are actually “photo-shopped” artfully into the scene so that they blend in with the right perspective, shading, coloring, etc. These prints have been sold in the last few years, advertised in MG Club publications. The one Susan has is numbered 16th in the series. The sense of actually being in the garage watching someone work on their car is amazing and worthy of hanging the print in a prime location to be enjoyed by all.

Lithograph showing artist F. Gordon Crosby sketching an MG

Another category of art has to be sculpture. There are a few great MG-related sculptures known to exist, and one of the most popular, and perhaps easiest to find, is a great metal piece called “Taking the Curve.” These were produced in a limited edition in cast pewter by the Franklin Mint in 1978 as a commemorative piece for the Sports Car Club of America. The sculptures have not been reproduced, but are not difficult to find at $125 or less. Just inspect them carefully for signs of damage such as a broken windshield frame or missing knock-off hub caps. They are clearly marked on the bottom, and the sculptor’s signature is prominently displayed.

A rare cast pewter sculpture by Chris Davis—this is #2 of 100 pieces

"Taking the Curve"—a cast pewter sculpture by the Franklin Mint

A much rarer but similar sculpture was done in bronze by sculptor Chris Davis sometime in the early 1970s. Only 100 were produced, and we are fortunate to have Number 2 in the edition. They are very difficult to find as it appeals to not only MG lovers, but also automobilia collectors in general.

What is surely a one-off is a wonderful contemporary ceramic piece Susan acquired at Hershey a couple of years ago. It is a sculpture of someone working on their MG. (It happens all the time, I hear.) Obviously handcrafted, it is nicely glazed and a really cute piece of artwork, although it is unsigned.

A ceramic MG that Susan found in Hershey a few years ago

Art takes on many forms and is done in all imaginable types of media. Collectibles of all kinds can help decorate your home and garage, so whether it is exquisitely hand-crafted models, bronze sculpture, framed artwork, signs, banners, tools or equipment, anything related to your car can enhance your enjoyment of this great hobby, and, it doesn’t need to be old to be great and enjoyed.

I hope you enjoy the photographs. Just imagine what collectible must be out there related to your Chevy, Ford, Buick, or ?? As always, happy collecting!

MG Kimber Festival 2019

Philadelphia, PA

Friday-Sunday, April 12-14, 2019

Story by Terry Bond. Photos by Susan and Terry Bond.

(Center) Susan Bond got a personal guided tour from Dr. Simeone

Every car marque has its iconic individuals and, for MG enthusiasts, Cecil Kimber is known as “the Father of the MG.” Several years ago, the New England MG “T” Register honored him by creating the “Kimber Society.” It is a club-within-a-club existing to carry out and share research and history about MG automobiles. Every aspect from design and manufacture to racing heritage and even today’s collector interest is a focus.

Once each year, close to Kimber’s birthday on April 12th, a special event is held to honor him. The annual “Kimber Festival” is rotated to different parts of the country. During the weekend of the Kimber Festival, MG enthusiasts get together to share information about the MG marque. Historic research is presented in seminars, new books are introduced, and new discoveries of historic vehicles are announced. For 2019, the Kimber Festival was held on Friday-Sunday, April 12-14, at the famous Simeone Museum in Philadelphia, PA, and Susan & I attended the festival for the first time.

Beginning on Friday with registration, a small flea market and a chance to visit the Simeone Museum collection at a leisurely pace was a great introduction. Getting to meet fellow MG enthusiasts and knowledgeable historians from all over the country was a treat. There were authors, published researchers, former MG employees, race car owners and drivers, and even restoration experts. It quickly became obvious we were in special company!

Susan struck gold in the small flea market and added several great MG models to her collection. Lots of literature and some early parts were also available. Alas, no rare spark plugs were available for me, but we had a wonderful chance to browse and learn.

That evening, we were treated to a great dinner at the Simeone Museum and sat with noted MG guru John Twist and MG Classics magazine editor Larry Santana and his wife. We met others, and listened to great stories of rare MGs rescued, restored, and raced.

Saturday was a full day at the Museum. Seminars were presented on historic cars, racing, documentation, and even a humorous look at the “tech speak” contained in some of the original factory workshop manuals. Such expressions as “reassembly is the reverse of disassembly” don’t really make much sense today when hammers and cold chisels are often involved to remove rusted bits and pieces!

One of our favorite seminars was presented by Brenda Benzar, who displayed her rare 1934 MG N-type at the Simeone Museum for the festival. The car was once owned and raced by Doreen Evans, a noted early British lady race car driver. Brenda kept us at the edge of our seats as she described the history of the car and its restoration. She actually drove the car in the 1,000-mile Mille Miglia endurance run through Italy. The car subsequently was stolen, recovered, and re-restored, and was the MG Class winner at the 2018 Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance.

Naturally, museum founder Dr. Fred Simeone was on the agenda and gave us a history of the Simeone Foundation, the Museum, and its wonderful collection of historic race cars, all displayed in their natural setting and in "as-raced" condition. Part of the thrill of the weekend was seeing his rare 1934 MG K Magnette outside in the sun, actually being driven. The car has a wonderful Le Mans race history, and Dr. Simeone's tales about how the remains of the car were rescued kept us spellbound. It was a thrill to meet Dr. Simeone and personally talk with him about the great cars in his collection. No doubt about it, the Simeone Museum needs to be on your "bucket list."

The Kimber Festival concluded Saturday evening with another opportunity to over-indulge at the buffet dinner, and with a late night spent visiting with new MG friends back at our nearby hotel.

It was a great MG weekend, and we're already excited about attending next year's event.

Jeff Locke — A Personal Memory

By Andy Ott

I'm here today at the 2019 AACA Southeastern Spring Nationals at the Charlotte Motor Speedway in Charlotte, NC. It's been a long road to my first Senior Award. I brought my 1931 Model A Ford pickup truck again, just like last year.

But it's NOT just like last year.

For at least a couple decades, I've appreciated Jeff and Pat Locke's hospitality as we traveled around the country in their various motor homes. We've chased 1935 Lincoln parts in Pennsylvania, Stutzes in Ohio, Model Ts in Indiana, steam trains and gold mines in Colorado, and anything else that tickled our collective curiosity. We've attended many antique car events and swap meets throughout the eastern United States, most often Hershey, and most recently Charlotte just last year.

I typically provided the Merlot and some occasional mechanical or electrical troubleshooting; Pat provided great food; and, of course, Jeffery always provided great entertainment. It was primarily through Jeff's continual nudging that I came out of my garage, so to speak, to share my restoration efforts with the larger hobby in the sunlight. Hence our presence last year at Charlotte, where we all really had a great time (and my Model A truck won its First Junior Award), never even thinking that would be one of Jeff's last public old car events.

I'm sure Jeff would have enjoyed the Charlotte festivities again this year. I'm also sure that all of us who knew him well now deeply respect his vision and his impact on our wonderful hobby. I'm glad to have occasionally traveled that long and curvy road along with him. Jeff, as we liked to say in the Navy, we wish you "fair winds and following seas."

The TRAAC Goes to the Virginia International Tattoo

Sunday, April 28, 2019

Story by Marion McAlpine. Photos by Mark McAlpine.

The Colonial Williamsburg Fifes & Drums competed in the Hullabaloo

On April 28, 2019, a group of 26 TRAAC members and family met at the Scope Arena in Norfolk for the world-famous Virginia International Tattoo event. The Virginia International Tattoo, followed by dinner at the nearby Monastery restaurant, was the May activity for the TRAAC.

If you are not familiar with the Virginia International Tattoo, it is an event consisting of military bands, drill teams, pipes & drums, international dancers, local choirs, and much more. It is a wonderfully entertaining show, and, according to its website, the event has been held since 1997 and is the largest in the country. Each year the Tattoo is different, with new themes and new performers from around the world. This year military bands & drill teams from Australia, Canada, France, Jordan, Romania, Scotland, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, and, of course, the United States performed. The show's theme this year was "Celebrating Women in Service to the Nation," recognizing women who have served our country in battle and on the home front.

If you arrive early to the Tattoo (up to three hours early), you can enjoy the free Virginia International Tattoo Hullabaloo where some of the drill teams and bands perform on the plaza outside the Scope before the show. There were also demonstrations by the French XV Pacific Rugby Team and a Highland Games-style heavy athletics championship. Food and drinks were available to purchase.

This was the first time many of our group had been to the Virginia International Tattoo. It was mesmerizing from the moment it started to the very end. The event was definitely a sight to behold, at times giving you goose bumps and bringing tears to your eyes.

After the Tattoo, our group walked over to The Monastery restaurant on Granby Street for a nice dinner in our own private room. The Monastery has been in business for over 30 years and is one of the oldest restaurants in downtown Norfolk. The restaurant has a European atmosphere and its menu features specialties from many European countries.

The U.S. Army Drill Team put on an impressive performance

If you have not been to the Virginia International Tattoo, you should definitely plan on attending! You will have to wait until next year, though, because April 28th was the last show for this year. TRAAC members who attended the Tattoo included Angie & Dan Ciccone, Sheryl & Curtis Cook, Vickie & Matt Doscher, Marie Gancel, Sandy & Richard Hall, Phyllis & Tim Hund, Marion & Mark McAlpine, Toni McChesney, Carol & Wayne Milligan, Maxine & Dewey Milligan, Dot & Bob Parrish, Barbara & Ken Talley, and Charlotte & Chip Woolford. Margie & Rad Tillett and John & Lynn Heimerl signed up, but unfortunately could not make the show. Thank you to Dot Parrish for organizing the activity and to John Heimerl for having a connection with the Scope to help with getting our group tickets.

After all teams entered the Scope, the U.S. national anthem was played

The combined bagpipers from Canada, Jordan, and the UK performed

Indy 500 Pace Cars

By John McCarthy

AACA Vice President Endowments

(Reprinted from Winter 2019 AACA Rummage Box newsletter)

I recently saw a list of the Indy 500 Pace Cars. While I am not very interested in motor racing, the Indianapolis 500 is the king of car races. I always envisioned Indy 500 Pace Cars as prestigious and powerful cars that led the race cars in their famous “rolling start.” Packard certainly was in this category being the Pace car in 1915 with a “6,” in 1919 with a Twin Six, and in 1936 with a 120. Tommy Milton, a two-time Indy 500 winner, was the driver of the 1936 120 Pace Car and proposed that the Pace Car be given to the Indy 500 winner, which then became a tradition that exists to this day.

Surprisingly, many of the Pace Cars do not fit the prestigious or powerful category.

The Indianapolis race track opened in 1909 as a race track but, more importantly, as a test track for production cars from Indiana and surrounding states. Indiana in the early 1900s was famous for producing such cars as American, Apperson, Auburn, Cole, Haynes, Marmon, Maxwell, Overland, Pope, Simplex, Star, Stoddard-Dayton, Studebaker, and Stutz. All of these manufacturers needed a good test track and, thus, the Indianapolis track was born. It was not until 1911 that the first Indianapolis 500 race was run, and a Stoddard-Dayton, a luxurious and powerful car produced in Indiana, was the first Indy Pace Car winner, followed by Stutz in 1912, and then Stoddard-Dayton again in 1913 and 1914.

Prestigious and powerful Pace Cars were used until 1938 when a Hudson Six with 83 HP was the Pace Car; 1940 when the first closed car—a Studebaker Champion 6 two-door sedan with 78 HP—led the pack; 1947 when the first four door sedan—a Nash Ambassador 6 with 112 HP—was used; and 1948 when a Chevrolet Fleetmaster Six with 90 HP led the pack. From this point until 1976, when a Buick V-6 Turbo was used, all the Pace Cars were V-8s. The cylinder count dropped to four cylinders for 1984 with a Pontiac Fiero, 1985 with an Oldsmobile Calais convertible (the roof was cut off of a sedan), 1987 with a Chrysler LeBaron Turbo, 1988 with an Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme Turbo, and 1990 with the final four-cylinder car—a Chevrolet Beretta.

Things didn't always go as planned. In 1962 a Studebaker Avanti was supposed to be the Pace Car, but production was delayed and a Studebaker Lark Daytona V-8 was the replacement, and in 1991 a Dodge Stealth, which was made in Japan, was scheduled to be the Pace Car, but the UAW objected and a pre-production version of the Dodge Viper took its place.

Chevrolet's first Pace Car was a 1948 Stylemaster convertible, but Chevrolet is the leading marque pacing the Indy 500 twenty-eight times, including 9 Camaros, 14 Corvettes, and even an SSR convertible pickup in 2003. Surprisingly, Corvette was not the Pace Car until 1978, but since then has been the Pace Car fourteen times. Since 2002, a Chevrolet has been the Pace Car every year. Oldsmobile comes in second being the Pace Car eleven times. Ford is third being the Pace Car seven times (including one Thunderbird and three Mustangs), followed by Buick and Chrysler at six times each.

The following are the manufacturers and the number of times they have been the Indianapolis 500 Pace car: Chevrolet—28; Oldsmobile—11; Ford—7, Buick and Chrysler—6; Dodge, Pontiac, and Studebaker—4; Cadillac, LaSalle, Mercury, Packard, and Stoddard-Dayton—3; Lincoln and Marmon—2; and one each for Cole, Cord, DeSoto, Duesenberg, HCS, Hudson, Nash, National Sextet, Plymouth, Premier, Rickenbacker, and Stutz. Of the 27 marques that have led the pack at Indy, only seven remain.

The Indianapolis Motor Speedway and Museum are in Indianapolis, Indiana, and are excellent places to visit. In addition to approximately 75 vehicles on display, there is a considerable amount of Indy 500 memorabilia. You can also ride around the Indy track in a small bus.

EDITOR'S DESK

Mark McAlpine

traacacontact@gmail.com

Car season is officially in full swing for the TRAACAs. The AACA has held two Nationals (the new term for what the club previously called "Meets")—the Winter Nationals in Ocala, FL, and the Southeastern Spring Nationals in Charlotte, NC—and the Grand Nationals are being held at the end of this month in Auburn, IN. Locally, the TRAACAs kicked off the local car season by holding our 24th Annual Swap Meet at the Nansemond-Suffolk Academy in Suffolk, VA, on 9 March, and the Virginia Chevy Lovers car club held its 15th Annual Spring Dust Off car show at Landstown Commons in Virginia Beach this past Saturday (27 April).

Next up is the TRAACAs Square Car Tour on Saturday, 11 May. (Charlie Dawson has planned a leisurely driving route for us through rural Pungo and further south to Knotts Island, NC. See the front page of this Mudflap for more details.) This is followed the next weekend by what may have become an annual event now for the club: the TRAACAs Barbecue at Dewey & Maxine Milligan's home in Chesapeake, VA, on Saturday, 18 May. The price is right—only $10 each for members—and the food will be delicious. Drive your antique vehicle—we'll have our own car show.

It's also time for the annual plea from your newsletter editors: please help us out and entertain your fellow members by writing some articles for The Mudflap. For members who have provided articles in the last year—thank you very much! For those that haven't submitted articles recently, please do so. In particular, there has been a dearth of "Caught in the Headlights" articles featuring TRAACAs member and their cars. Please take the time to write an article about your antique car. We have over three hundred antique vehicles in the TRAACAs, and each one has its own unique story. ("Caught in the Headlights" articles don't have to be long: we need about 500 words and 4 photos—one of you with your car, another of the car by itself, one of the engine compartment, and one of the interior. We can even come over and take the photographs for you if you'd prefer it. And if you really don't want to write the article but are willing to share your story, Marion or I or one of our intrepid reporters can come interview you.)

We'd also like to receive articles from you about almost anything else related to antique vehicles: your first car; trips or tours you've enjoyed with an old car (and old friends); car shows or swap meets you've been to; automobile museums you've visited; restoration projects; tech articles; collectibles; etc. Members can relate to these stories, will find them interesting, and enjoy learning more about whatever you write about (and more about you). And don't forget: contributors to The Mudflap are in the running for the region's annual "Mudflap Award" and authors of "Caught in the Headlights" articles receive a framed copy of that month's issue front cover featuring your vehicle on it.

Finally, don't forget about the Old Dominion Meet being hosted by our sister AACA region—the Historic Virginia Peninsula Region (HVPR)—in Newport News on Friday-Saturday, 7-8 June. This annual event rotates among 14 AACA regions in Virginia, and won't be this close to us again for at least another five years. Please support the HVPR (they supported us when we hosted the Old Dominion Meet in 2017) by registering and bringing your antique car to the show. It's going to be a lot of fun!
